Mr. Livingston T. Jerobent Inder Secretary of State for Political Affairs Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Livia:

I have your latter of 26 August and the unallosed copy of the latter that you received from Minimono

Our Personnel people tell me that applied for a position here and that his papers were made evailable to the various offices which might use sessons with his background and experience. He also explored the possibilities of using him as a consultant or on a contract basis, but we were anable to find any position for which he might be considered. However, I appreciate your writing to me about him.

With every beat wish.

Sincerely,

SIENER
